...MARCH

We've found the best products this month – so get to the shops before word gets around!

Stop press! You've got the ladybird, the bee, the cow... now it's time for the mouse. The award-winning Wheelybug from Hippychick (from £49.95) now comes in this fabulous new rodent-inspired design. As a special March treat, Hippychick are offering M&B readers an exclusive 10% discount when you visit hippychick.com (just quote the promotional code: MBHC 010207 when ordering).

The new Sovereign Highchair from Silver Cross, £99.99, is a must-buy for style-savvy mums. It's designed to fit into any kitchen and, not only can you adjust the six height positions with one hand, it also folds one-handed, too. That's our kind of highchair.

His food's organic, his clothes are organic... what next? Organic shampoos and moisturisers that's what, thanks to Daniel Galvin Junior's new Organic Hair Juice range (all products £3.49/125ml). See danielgalvinjunior.co.uk for details.

Happy Birthday Vertbaudet! Everyone's favourite French fashion and nursery company is celebrating its tenth birthday this year. As well as providing us with fabulously chic and budget-friendly gear for the last decade, the spring catalogue is out now with fabulous maternity clothes, like this shirt dress, £19.99, and gorgeous baby clothes sets like this one (below), worth £11.99.

Vertbaudet are offering you the chance to bag yourself one of their baby clothes sets. Send your details and colour preference (pink or blue) to Vertbaudet/Mother & Baby giveaway (ref VQP019), Features Department, Bradford BD99 4XB. Good luck! M&B
