

village life

July 2007

CenterParcs

Issue 13 £1.00

Make an executive decision

Experience our stylish new Executive Lodges on your next break

Enjoy the sunshine
Entertain with our alfresco party menu

Making a splash
Your children's favourite activities

Get creative and win!
We have three family holidays to give away

The best blocks

The latest product from the ever-popular Lego® range, this action packed Lego City Fire Station comes fully equipped with everything you need to tackle blazes anytime, anywhere! From brave Lego firefighters to fantastic firefighting vehicles – saving the day is par for the course at Lego City.
Lego City Fire Station: £39.99 The full Lego range is available at all good toy shops. For more details visit www.lego.com/city

A feast of fun

Get your children to understand the different food groups with the Melissa and Doug Food Groups Set, a well-balanced 21-piece pretend food set. This durable wooden set will provide hours of fuss-free playtime, while teaching them about the different kinds of food.
Food Groups Play Set: £19.99.
 For stockists call 0845 456 1775.

The ultimate hideout

With Win Green's collection of handmade play tents and accessories, from space rockets to garages, gingerbread cottages to puppet theatres, there is plenty to inspire your children.
Gingerbread Cottage or Sheriff's Office, £229.00
 from www.wingreen.com or 01622 746516

Born to be wild

This really is the ultimate first bike. This learner bike by Early Rider is designed to teach your child to ride without stabilisers. It's suitable for children from 2-5 years and features a steering system that adapts to your child's development, meaning that he or she is as safe as possible, as well as looking great!
Early Rider Classic: £89.99 Available from www.thelittlebikecompany.co.uk

Bookworms

You'll be hard pushed not to find something from DK books to pique the interest of your children. Whether they're into science, animals, sports, ballet, history, superheroes or almost anything else, you're bound to find the perfect book for them from the DK range.

Genius

If you want to introduce your little ones to the true genius of Shakespeare, get hold of the Shakespeare Comic Book series. The original text is accompanied by a modern English translation and set against a backdrop of illustrations, meaning that the story is easy to get to grips with.
Shakespeare comics: £6.99 each.
 Available from www.shakespearecomics.com

Productive play

Looking for something new and creative for your children's playtime? Village Life brings you some of the most innovative and exciting toys around today that nurture skills and teach new things, but are also excellent fun

Old school

The unicorn and penguin are made from organic, sustainable products. Durable, natural and fun, these toys really are special.
Organic hobby unicorn: £16.00
Push along penguin: £14.00.
 For more details visit www.faceofflowers.co.uk or call 01570 423523

Emergency!

Create an adventure with the Playmobil Hospital. Complete with working lift, operating table and eight figures.
Hospital £99.99 from 0800 137880 or www.toysdirecttoyourdoor.co.uk
Village Life readers get 5% off with voucher code TDTYD2

Ride-on time

With one of these fabulous Wheelybugs, your little ones will be zooming about all summer long! They go backwards, forwards, sideways and round and round, and can be ridden, pushed, pulled, kissed and cuddled. These ride-on bugs are great on all level surfaces and will quickly become a firm favourite from the toy box.
Wheelybug: from £49.95 - available from www.hippychick.com or 01278 434440

